

I live in NJ and have welcomed the peace and quiet that the "Do Not Call List" has given me. I hope that you don't take this away from me. If I want to conduct business with someone, I contact them when it's convenient for me.